BGRS MEMBERS BUSY WITH SEPTEMBER ROSE ACTIVITIES by Mary A. Hext, CR

September has been a very busy month for Bowling Green Rosarians. There has not been available time to write or obtain articles for Rosebuds, so this edition will consist of pictures of some recent activities.

- The Tenarky Arrangement Workshop at Cheekwood was attended by Bob and Ann Jacobs, Richard and Vi Hudson, and Mary Ann Hext.

- Bob and Ann Jacobs and Mary Ann Hext exhibited at the Louisville Rose Show where

Bob had Sweet Revenge on the mini court. He received first for floribunda Sexy Remy. He also had first place ribbons for Lovers Lane and Love and Peace in the hybrid tea class. Bob also had four second places, and seven third places. Ann received the ARS Royalty Award, the ARS bronze certificate, and first place for her line mass arrangement with Glad Tidings and Salsa. Ann also received a third place for her mini line mass arrangement with Pierrine roses. Mary Ann Hext received third place in modern free form with Veteran's Honor, first place, ARS silver certificate and ARS Oriental award for her moribana entry with Gemini, third place for her mini moribana entry with Bees Knees, and first place, ARS Mini Artist award, and ARS Silver certificate for her mini abstract design with Memphis Music.

- Yvonne Wright and family members attend the Louisville Rose Show.
- BGRS members attending the Tenarky Fall Convention and Rose Show were: Kent and Claire Campbell, Bob and Ann Jacobs, Kathy Dodson, and Mary Ann Hext. Bob Jacobs had Gemini on the Court, Arcanum on the Mini Court, and Memphis King on the Miniflora Court. Ann Jacobs received third place with her line mass with Cardinal. Ann also received second on her mini oriental free form with Soroptimist International. Mary Ann Hext received first in the Polyantha class with Verdun, first in the Restricted Challenge class with Moonstone, second in the challenge class Basket of Shrub Roses with Double Knockout, second with her arrangement in the Duke class with Power Point and Memphis King, second with her moribana arrangement with Veteran's Honor, third with her oriental free form arrangement with Butter Cream, and first with her mini abstract arrangement with Memphis Music along with the Mini Artist Award and a gold ARS certificate.

- Kent Campbell presented at the ARS Judge's School. Bob and Ann Jacobs and Mary Ann Hext audited the school. Kathy Dodson took the test to become an ARS apprentice judge.
- Bob and Ann Jacobs and Kent and Claire Campbell plan to attend a portion of the ARS National Fall Convention in Atlanta in October.
- Some of our members plan to exhibit at the Nashville Rose Society workshop on Saturday.
- Kent Campbell is recovering from a recent illness.
- Vi Hudson is having a knee replacement this week.
