

I know this pose has been used by thousands of mothers, but to me this picture of my husband and one-month-old son is what brings peace to my heart and soul. ~ Reta Kennedy

LOVE + SECURITY = PEACE

Tracker* Script Drawing

Just before the holidays, Adrian took time to draw the first winners of APFC's No-Entry Contest. The following people won autographed copies of Tracker scripts:

Linda Alexander
Deborah Arnold
Paula Wilber
Mike Borowiecki
Nancy Schwager

Five more winners will be drawn next quarter. All you have to do to have a chance to win is be a current member of the APFC. What could be easier?

Time to get out your videos and do some research!

Which of these pairs of glasses did

Adrian wear as vampire cop Aaron Grey in The Breed? You may send in your answers via regular mail or e-mail to the addresses for APFC News inside the back cover. Deadline for entries is April 10, 2003.

One winner will be drawn randomly from all correct entries. (For those of you who like to know what the prize will be, we'll just have to see what's in the prize closet at the time of the drawing ... but it'll be good!)

Tattoo Express #1 and #2

We had a late entry for Tattoo Express #1.

Chara Ryan squeaked in just under the deadline wire (and after we'd already taken the November issue to press) with a guess of 134 -- which bested Pam Ochs's guess of 131. (The correct answer was 151.) It was only fair, under the circumstances, to crown two winners, and Chara also received a PEACE denim shirt.

Tattoo Express #2 from the November issue asked the following: How long did it take to apply the tattoo Adrian wears as Vern in Paper, Scissors, Stone? The correct answer is 2 1/2 hours and Kanako Iwata answered it exactly! Because of the limited sizes of PEACE denim shirts, Kanako will receive a PEACE mock turtleneck.

Congratulations to all our winners!