Describe the unique rights and responsibilities students have as young adults.

GOAL: Students will understand the difference between rights and responsibilities.

Activity Statements:

Students will discuss some of their rights and responsibilities.

Materials:

1. Pen/pencil

Procedures:

1. Write the words "right" and "responsibility" on the board.
2. Ask students to define both of these words.
3. Record students' definitions on the board.
4. Ask students to list on paper what they believe are their academic responsibilities.
5. Encourage students to share their ideas with the entire class.

Discussion:

1. What rights do you have?
2. How do you define responsibility?
3. What are some of your rights?
4. What are some of your academic responsibilities?
5. What are some of your other school responsibilities?
5. What are some of your home responsibilities?
7. What are some of your community responsibilities?

RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Integrative Closing Statement:

Remind students that they have a right to a free public education, but it is their responsibility to get to school on time, do their work, be prepared, respect others and complete all graduation requirements.
