

Sample Family Biographies

Use the following biographies as examples when writing your family's biography

WHOOLEY

Erin, Emily and Conor Whooley were all born at Harrison County Hospital in the years 1987, 1989, and 1993. These three children have attended schools, played sports, and lived all of their lives in Harrison County. Erin, Emily, and Conor feel that they are Harrison "Countians". Their parents, Michael and Molly, have a different story.

Molly too was born in Harrison County, at the hospital in March of 1961. She is the seventh child of John D. Laswell and Mayme Ruth Hopper Laswell. Molly grew up on what had, many years previously, been the Crawford County Poor Farm. Molly's heritage is mostly German, with names like Kellams, and Froman, with some English and maybe other things mixed in with names like Lee, Level, Curl and Hopper. As everyone knows, growing up on a farm in one of the best lives a kid can have, and Molly did indeed have a very nice childhood. After graduating high school she was unsure of what she wanted to do, but knew she should probably go to college. She also knew that if she was going to college it would be Purdue and she would major in agriculture. Purdue is where Molly changed Mike's life.

Mike Whooley decided on Purdue University after serving four years in the Marine Corps. A large factor in that choice was the cost of living in Indiana, compared to that of New Jersey, where Mike had grown up. Michael Whooley was born in Queens, New York in November of 1958. He is the son and oldest child of Morgan Whooley and Jeannette Mohan Whooley. Morgan and Jeannette are first generation Americans. Both parents of both Morgan and Jeanette came to America from Ireland. Jeannette's parents came through Ellis Island, and their names are recorded there. Both Francis Mohan and Sarah Lennon Mohan were from County Cork, Ireland. However they did not know each other when they came to this country and in fact came here at different times. Comeilius Whooley entered a monastery when he was only 14 years old and living in County Mayo, Ireland. Comeilius was bright and became a teacher at the monastery. However, before taking his final vows to become a priest, Comeilius had an appendix attack and was taken to the hospital. There he discovered that he liked the nurses very much, and thus made the choice to go to America. Brigid Killegrew Whooley also came from County Mayo, Ireland. She married John Carey who died and left here with a son John. Brigid then married Comeilius Whooley and had Morgan and his sister Evelyn. Brigid died from tuberculosis when Morgan was only four years old. Since the Irish tend to be tight lipped anyway, very little other information is known about Brigid.

Michael and Molly Laswell Whooley were married in July of 1984 at Dillman Church near Curby, Indiana. In July of 1987 they moved to Heidelberg Road, just south of Corydon, where they still reside. Michael has now lived in Harrison County longer than he has ever lived anywhere else. Molly is approaching that mark. In May of 2003 Morgan and Jeannette Whooley also moved to Corydon.

WILLIAM ROTHROCK

The line of William Rothrock (1 September 1826) can be traced from Hans Rothrock (1602) through Michael 1639) Johannes (1684) and George (1721.) The family emigrated from Lieselheim, Germany to Bucks County Pennsylvania in 1736.

Peter (1755) served as a private in Captain Christopher's Sixth Company, Second Battalion, Bucks County Militia during the American Revolution. After the war he married Margaret Heidner (16 October 1755) 13 January 1785 and moved to Oneida, New York in 1793. In 1819, Peter, Margaret, their three children, a daughter-in-law, a grandson and a nephew floated down the Ohio River about 60 miles below Louisville, then up Blue River a few miles and settled near present day Wyandotte Cave. The Rothrocks timbered the 4,000 acres they purchased and built a series of mills along the banks of the Blue River. There were actually thirteen mills between Totten Ford Bridge and the Ohio River, six of which were operated by members of the Rothrock family.

Peter and Margaret had three children: Solomon (23 November 1786 - 22 April 1867), Henry Peter (8 Feb. 1792 - 11 Feb. 1871) and Mary (1 Aug. 1802 - 20 July 1872). Most Rothrocks in our area are descended from one of these three lines.

Solomon married Sally Clark and had 9 children. They were George, Philo, Amos, Margaret, Alexander, Louis, Rebecca, Mary, and Joseph. Solomon moved up Blue River and he and his descendants operated mills there, including the last standing Rothrock Mill, which was torn down in 1986.

Henry Peter married Lydia Marshall

Bounds and had 12 children. They were Abram, Lydia Shrigley, William, Julius, Minerva Wiseman, Polly Sharp, Almira Hughes, Rachel Cole, Henry Andrew, Harrison Washington, Margaret Bennett, and Sarah.

Mary married Joseph Wilson and had one son, Isaac.

Peter died on 4 Feb. 1826. Margaret died 8 Aug. 1842. Both are buried in the Rothrock cemetery at Wyandotte.

This narrative will continue by tracking

Belle Rothrock Hall, Mary Margaret Rothrock Rosenbarger, Rose Rothrock Smoots, Julius Rothrock, Josephine Rothrock Conrad, Ida Rothrock Loudon, Cora Rothrock Conrad. In chair, William (Grandpa) Rothrock.

the William Rothrock line. William (1826-1914) operated the family mill at Wyandotte. During this time he lived in Fox Hollow which is now part of the Harrison Crawford State Forest. After the death of his father, Henry P. Rothrock, in 1871, he moved about two miles upriver and founded the town of White Cloud. They built a home, which later became the Blue River Inn. He built a new grist and sawmill which the family operated until 1950.

William married Mary Ann McCullum (14 September 1828 - d. 18 June. 1898) daughter of James and Abigail (Sharp) McCullum. They had seven children and 24 grandchildren: Lydia Isabella Hall (1853); Alice Josephine Conrad (1855) - Ethel, Blanche and Edgar; Rosalie Jane Smoots - (1857) - Mary, Raymond, Edna and Richard, Julius (1859) - Victor, Albert, Russel and Ola; Ida Adelaide Loudon (1861),- Abby, Julius, Bob, Hobart and Anna; Mary Margaret Rosenbarger (1865) - Philip, William, Mary, Belle and Elsie; and Cora Louise Conrad (1867) - Mary Ann, Phyllis and Ruth.

William Rothrock died on December 26, 1914 and is buried in Blue River Chapel Cemetery along with his wife and numerous descendants.
