

So...Talk!

If you were your partner's publicist, what would you want the media to know about him or her? On what show would you want them to be a guest?

What was your favorite book as a child and why? What does it reveal about your personality?

If you had to build a room onto your house or apartment and you had to spend at least $100,000, but you were limited to just that one kind of room, what kind of room would it be?

What is the most difficult challenge you faced before you met your partner, and how would it have been different facing it together?

If your roles as husband and wife were reversed, how would life for you be easier?

What is the most romantic movie you've ever seen? Why? What does your choice reveal about your romantic side?

If you as a couple could have dinner with another couple from history, who would that couple be? Why would you choose them?

If you did not live in the United States, what country would you want to live in and why?

Over the course of your marriage, when do you recall most deeply missing your spouse?

What personal annoying habit of your partner's has become endearing for you over time? In other words, name something that used to bother you that you've now come to appreciate because it's a part of who your spouse is.

If you could re-live one day in the life of your marriage, which day would it be?

If your marriage were to have a homepage on the internet, what would it look like? What would it say?

Which of your partner's accomplishments are you most proud of ?

What one area of your marriage would you most like to improve over the next year and how can you do it?
