

Mission Fundraising Ideas

Ebay it!

this is an easy one. Get together stuff you no longer need and get it on ebay! Do a little research to find out what your item sells for and price it accordingly. It's fast and easy. Ask relatives and friends to donate unused items to you instead of cash and sell them. Antiques, electronics, old toys, vintage items. You can many times buy things at yard sales and Goodwill and re-sell them at a profit on ebay. If you don't know how to do, just ask!

Yard Sale it!

Almost as easy as Ebay.

Consign it!

Spend a day getting together your old clothes. Wash, iron and take them to Plato's Closet or one of the many consignment stores around town.

Sell it!

Kroger offers a percentage of sales for selling gift certificates. Other stores may do the same. Many people shop there anyway and they are happy to buy the certificates to help you raise money.

Earn it!

Work some overtime, cut some lawns, do a little part time work on the week-ends (ask around your church to see who needs help). Use you experience and expertise to be a consultant on the side.

Keep it!

Save money and set it aside for missions; don't buy lottery tickets, save your change everyday, set aside your raise at work for missions, drink water instead of soft drinks when eating out (@almost $2 ea.)

Save it!

Save $1 the first week, $2 the second, $3...and so on. in 6 months, you'll have $350!!

Steal it!

Just kidding!
